Play and Exploration: Phase II

The Phase II workshop focuses on two topics: How Young Children Learn and Using Documentation: Supporting Young Children’s Learning. It is part of a series of workshops and professional learning opportunities supporting the implementation of Play and Exploration: Early Learning Program Guide.

This workshop targets those who work with young children and have begun to implement the vision and principles of Play and Exploration. Participants are encouraged to attend the Phase I workshop: Introduction and Creating Holistic Responsive Environments prior to attending the Phase II workshop.

Please bring an example of documentation showing the learning of an individual or group of children from your early learning program or facility. Only one documentation example is required from participants from the same program or facility.
