Overview of Travel and Objectives

Minister Boyd took part in a panel discussion regarding “Transportation in a Competitive Market” at the CAPP Scotiabank Investment Symposium, one of Canada’s biggest energy investment events.

Panel Participants included:

Ian Whitcomb, President, Irving Oil

Eric Tetrault, President, Manufacturers and Exporters of Quebec

Norm Rinne, Senior Director of Business Development, Kinder Morgan Canada

The panel allowed Minister Boyd to present the Saskatchewan perspective on the transportation of oil to hundreds of delegates including over 90 Canadian oil and gas CEOs, institutional investors, business media and sponsors.

The Symposium also allowed for networking opportunities with energy companies to discuss the current energy outlook and Canadian competitiveness. These relationships are important as our government continues to make the case that Saskatchewan is the best place in Canada to invest in the oil and gas sector.
