Statement from the Minister

The Honourable Jeremy Harrison

Minister of Immigration and Career Training

I am pleased to present the Ministry of Immigration and Career Training Plan for 2018-19.

Government Direction and Budget for 2018-19 is focused on keeping Saskatchewan On Track by controlling spending, delivering high quality services for Saskatchewan people, keeping our economy strong, and returning to balance in 2019-20.

A strong labour force attracts growth and investment to the province, and must adapt to changing economic conditions. Our provincial motto—"From Many Peoples, Strength"—recognizes that diversity of background, experience and culture creates a Saskatchewan that is more flexible, more capable, more prosperous, and more inclusive. This is fundamental to supporting economic growth. Fortunately, the past decade has seen some of the strongest and most sustained population growth in this province's history; from 2007 to 2017, more than 108,300 immigrants arrived in Saskatchewan from over 170 countries around the world, and the off-reserve Indigenous population aged 15 and older increased by 20,500 people. These are just two segments of our population that define the strategic advantages for Saskatchewan businesses to compete in a global economy. By helping people be fully engaged in jobs and in our economy, we can help fulfill their potential and ours as a province.

Through the establishment of an independent ministry with responsibility for immigration and career training, we are demonstrating a renewed recognition by our government of the importance and contributions of our people to the future of Saskatchewan.

This Ministry's mandate is to help individuals prepare for, obtain and maintain employment, and the activities required to assist employers with the development, recruitment and retention of workers. Ministry activities involve three broad tasks: delivering services and programs that address labour demand; undertaking activities to fully engage our labour supply; and the provision of corporate services to streamline administration of the Ministry itself, as well as the Ministries of Energy and Resources, and Trade and Export Development.

Based on these lines of business and client groups, the Ministry is structured into three divisions. They are: Immigration, Employment and Career Development, which is responsible for the employment and career growth of Saskatchewan residents, as well as the attraction and settlement of newcomers to the province; Training and Employer Services, which will support efforts to develop, recruit, and retain a skilled and diverse workforce; and Corporate Services, responsible for elements including finance, information technology, information management, privacy, and program administration.

The goals and objectives outlined in this plan will demonstrate how we will be mobilizing the advantages of a diverse population, ensuring that Saskatchewan people with the ability to work also have the opportunity to contribute to building—and growing—Saskatchewan together .

Highlights

2018-19 Budget Highlights

The Ministry of Immigration and Career Training is working to keep Saskatchewan On Track by building for the future with fiscal responsibility by:

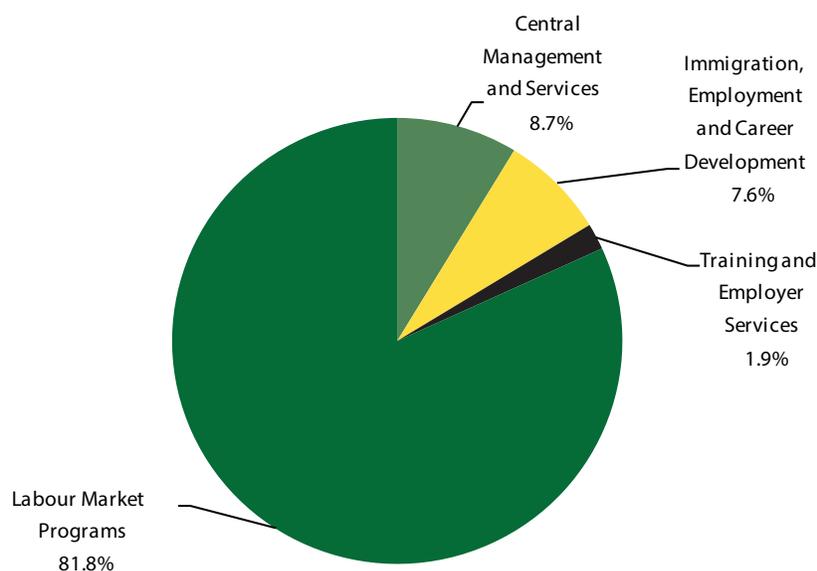

- ⇒ Funding and delivering labour market programs and services through collaboration with the Government of Canada, including:
  - ⇒ Newly negotiated Canada-Saskatchewan Labour Market Transfer Agreements over the next six years. Specifically, Saskatchewan employers and workers will benefit from $73 million in funding in 2018-19, rising to $81.7 million by 2022-23;
  - ⇒ Improved coordination of settlement planning and investments with Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada; and
  - ⇒ Strengthening direct federal investment in the Saskatchewan labour market by introducing Saskatchewan employers, workers, community-based organizations and training institutions to the federal government's programs and services. This includes leveraging the National Job Bank as a platform to strengthen SaskJobs.ca, and building awareness of the Canada Summer Jobs program so that more Saskatchewan employers and students can benefit.
- ⇒ Working closely with human service ministries to align investments with Ministry mandates, and identifying shared priorities and actions to strengthen labour market outcomes. For example, 2018-19 sees the transfer of funding and responsibility for the Street Workers Advocacy Project to the Ministry of Corrections and Policing, which has also been funding activities with that organization.
- ⇒ Sharing corporate services with the Ministries of Energy and Resources, and Trade and Export Development to ensure continued alignment and strategic coordination between ministries, as well as cost savings.
