

ASSURANCE SYSTEM PRODUCER PROGRAM
BIOSECURITY/ANIMAL WELFARE
EQUIPMENT RECOMMENDATION REPORT
Beef Cattle

In order for producers to be eligible to receive reimbursement for equipment purchases, a Saskatchewan Veterinary Medical Association licensed veterinarian must authorize this report.

This report is valid for up to two years from the assessment date below.

The producer must submit this assessment with the Rebate Application Form.

PRODUCER INFORMATION

First Name: _____ Last Name: _____

Business Name (if applicable): _____

Alternate Contact (if applicable): _____

VETERINARIAN INFORMATION

First Name: _____ Last Name: _____

Clinic Name (if applicable): _____

Phone Number: _____

Date of Assessment: _____

Please identify recommended equipment and corresponding level of risk identified during the veterinary assessment.

Priority Area	Recommended Equipment		Risk Level (for recommended equipment)
	Yes	No	Low	Medium	High
Biosecurity
Segregation pen
Deadstock site
Fencing to prevent access to feed and standing water
Signage for controlled and restricted access zones
Cleaning and disinfection station(s)
Comments:
Animal Welfare Improvements
Tilt table
Hoof trimming chute

ASSURANCE SYSTEM PRODUCER PROGRAM
BIOSECURITY/ANIMAL WELFARE
EQUIPMENT RECOMMENDATION REPORT
Beef Cattle

Priority Area	Recommended Equipment		Risk Level (for recommended equipment)
	Yes	No	Low	Medium	High
Portable squeeze chute
Bud box
Loading chutes
Livestock scales and feed scales
Squeeze chutes with extra restraints
Alleyways
Crowding tubs
Traction/matting for loading and working cattle facilities
Calf catching pens
Portable calf carts
Calving/maternity pen
Calf tip table
Remote surveillance for calving
Pain control administration training by a veterinarian
Needleless injection equipment
Comments:

By completing this report under the Canadian Agricultural Partnership (CAP) Assurance Systems Program, I:

1. certify that the information provided is complete and correct;
2. certify that I am a licensed veterinarian with the Saskatchewan Veterinary Medical Association;
3. have been on site to assess the farm as indicated; and
4. am an arms-length third party to the operation being assessed.

Signature: _____

Licensed veterinarian

Date: _____