

THE SASKATCHEWAN FARM SECURITY ACT
PART VI - FARM OWNERSHIP
NON-RESIDENT APPLICATION FOR EXEMPTION

Part A- BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Saskatchewan's farm ownership legislation was instituted in 1974 to regulate the ownership and control of the province's farm land. The Saskatchewan Farm Security Act restricts the ownership and control of farm land by non-Canadian citizens and non-Canadian residents.

Your holdings are limited to 10 acres unless:

- land is acquired from a relative designated in the Act who was a resident of Canada for five years
- the land holding was acquired prior to the legislation's enactment in 1974
- the land holding was acquired while you resided in Canada for five years
- an Exemption is provided by the Farm Land Security Board

The following definitions are found in Part VI of the Act, and its regulations. They will help you determine whether an application is required:

A resident person means:

- (i) A Canadian citizen, or;
- (ii) A permanent resident of Canada within the meaning of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (Canada)

A land holding includes most legal interests in agricultural land but excludes mortgages.

An aggregate land holding includes all land holdings of a person and of the person's spouse and child.

Farm land means land outside of an urban municipality that is used or can be used for farming.

Regulations of The Saskatchewan Farm Security Act provide the following fee structure:

5(1) subject to subsection (2), every applicant to the ownership board shall pay a fee of:

- (a) $50 for the first 640 acres or four quarter sections, whichever is greater, involved in application; and
- (b) $10 for every additional 160 acres or one quarter section, whichever is greater, involved in the application.

(2) The maximum fee payable by an applicant pursuant to this section is $200.
