Loan guarantee

6(1) For the purposes of subsection 46(1) of the Act, the prescribed maximum amount of a loan that may be guaranteed is an amount equal to 25% of the least of:

- (a) the amount outstanding on the loan at the time of a first default on any advance following the issuance of the guarantee with respect to the loan, plus accrued interest as of the time that payment is to be made on the guarantee;

SHEEP BREEDER ASSOCIATIONS
LOAN GUARANTEE

F-8.001 REG 10

- (b) the amount allowed by subsection (3); and
 - (c) the amount provided for by clause 46(2)(b) of the Act.
- (1.1) For the purposes of subsection (1), the time of a first default is a date determined by the provincial supervisor and the lender, when:
- (a) there are unresolved arrears;
 - (b) part or all of the inventory is missing and no payment is made; or
 - (c) inventory is sold and there will be a shortfall in payment.
- (2) The loan on which a guarantee is provided shall be used by the breeder association only for the purchase of breeding stock to be produced or grown by its members:
- (a) on member farms; or
 - (b) with custom feeders.
- (3) For the purposes of subsections 46(1) and (2) of the Act, no breeder association shall borrow in excess of:
- (a) $35,000 with respect to any individual breeder:
 - (i) who has not previously had a loan guaranteed pursuant to the Act taken on his or her behalf by the breeder association; and
 - (ii) who has been a member of the breeder association for less than one year;
 - (b) $70,000 with respect to any individual breeder:
 - (i) who has been a member of the breeder association for at least one year but less than two years; and
 - (ii) who has produced and grown breeding stock during the period in which the individual breeder was a member;
 - (c) $100,000 with respect to any individual breeder:
 - (i) who has been a member of the breeder association for at least two years; and
 - (ii) who has produced and grown breeding stock during each of the years in which the individual breeder was a member; and
 - (d) a total of $4,000,000 with respect to all breeders.

Option of member where stock dies or is culled

7 Where any breeding stock of a breeder dies or is culled and the breeding stock was covered by a loan guaranteed pursuant to these regulations, the breeder association shall require the breeder, at the breeder's option:

- (a) to continue to make payments to retire the loan that the breeder would be required to pay if the breeding stock had not died or been culled and to secure replacement breeding stock of the equivalent value of the breeding stock that died or was culled; or
- (b) to pay out the prorated amount of the loan for the breeding stock that died or was culled.

23 Apr 99 cF-8.001 Reg 10 s7.

Repayment of advances

8(1) Subject to subsection (2) and section 9, if a breeder association purchases breeding stock for a breeder, the breeder association shall repay the advance used to purchase the breeding stock:

- (a) within 48 months after the day on which it purchased the breeding stock; and
- (b) in annual payments of 25% of the amount of the initial advance, plus interest, on or before the anniversary date of the advance.

(1.1) Notwithstanding subsection (1), but subject to subsection (2) and section 9, if a breeder association has prepaid a portion of the advance mentioned in subsection (1), the breeder association may, for the remaining term of the advance:

- (a) continue to repay the advance as set out in clauses (1)(a) and (b); or
- (b) repay the advance:
 - (i) within 48 months after the day on which it purchased the breeding stock; and
 - (ii) in annual payments equalized over the remaining term of the advance, plus interest, on or before the anniversary date of the advance.

(2) The provincial supervisor may authorize an association to establish one or two dates for the annual payments for all advances made on behalf of a breeder.

31 Mar 2006 SR 22/2006 s4; 24 Oct 2008 SR 95/2008 s5.

Extension of repayment period

9(1) If the provincial supervisor is satisfied that the circumstances warrant it, the provincial supervisor may do either or both of the following:

- (a) subject to subsection (2), extend the period within which all or any annual repayment is to be made;
- (b) vary the amount of any annual repayment.

(2) The provincial supervisor shall not grant an extension pursuant to clause (1)(a) that is greater than 24 months.

(b) the breeder association or the lender requires the breeder to make a deposit to the association's breeding stock assurance fund in accordance with subsection (1) with respect to all new advances for the breeder, until all advances outstanding at the time the breeder association recommences operations have been paid.

23 Apr 99 cF-8.001 Reg 10 s18.

Refund of deposits

19(1) In this section, "prorated share" means an amount based on the amount of a breeder's deposit in the breeder association's breeding stock assurance fund:

- (a) as a proportion of the total deposits to the breeding stock assurance fund; and
- (b) calculated at the time the claim against the breeding stock assurance fund is made.

(2) For the purposes of subsection 59(4) of the Act but subject to subsections (3) and (4) of this section, where a breeder resigns from a breeder association and is not in default with respect to any advance, the breeder association shall refund to the breeder, within the period prescribed in subsection (7), the deposits made by the breeder pursuant to subsection 18(1) less any amount deducted pursuant to subsection (8).

(3) No breeder association that has a due or an overdue account with a lender shall refund to the breeder the deposits made by the breeder pursuant to subsection 18(1).

(4) Where a breeder who is not in default with respect to any advance resigns from a breeder association that has paid a due or an overdue account to a lender out of its breeding stock assurance fund, the breeder association shall refund to the breeder, within the period prescribed in subsection (7), an amount equal to that breeder's prorated share at the time of resignation, less any amount deducted pursuant to subsection (8).

(5) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), where a breeder who is not in default with respect to any advance remains a member of a breeder association but has been inactive in the affairs of the breeder association for 90 days or more, the breeder association may refund to that breeder the deposits made by that breeder pursuant to subsection 18(1), less any amount deducted pursuant to subsection (8), any time after the expiration of the 90-day period.

(6) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), where a breeder who is not in default with respect to any advance remains a member of a breeder association and has outstanding breeder agreements with the breeder association, and where the breeder association, on behalf of that breeder, has repaid any advance or advances made pursuant to one or more breeder agreements, the breeder association may refund to that breeder the deposits made by that breeder pursuant to subsection 18(1) relating to those repaid advances, less:

- (a) any deposits applied to new advances in accordance with subsections 18(2) and (4); and
- (b) any amount deducted pursuant to subsection (8).

(7) Subject to subsections (7.1) and (7.2), if a breeder association makes a refund pursuant to subsection (2) or (4), the breeder association shall make the refund not less than 90 days after nor more than 105 days after the day on which the breeder resigns.

(7.1) Subject to subsection (7.2), if a breeder was inactive in the breeder association immediately before resigning, the breeder association must reduce the number of days mentioned in subsection (7) by the number of days that the breeder was inactive.

(7.2) Any reduction in the number of days pursuant to subsection (7.1) must not:

- (a) result in a negative number of days; or
- (b) give the breeder association less than 15 days from the day the breeder resigns to make the refund.

(8) Where a breeder association makes a refund pursuant to this section, the breeder association may deduct from the refund:

- (a) any amount owing to the breeder association by the breeder, including any amount owing pursuant to a feeder agreement as defined in The Sheep Feeder Associations Loan Guarantee Regulations; and
- (b) any costs, fees or expenses incurred by the breeder association with respect to that breeder.
