CHAPTER U-8

An Act respecting Unsolicited Goods and Credit Card.

Short title

1 This Act may be cited as The Unsolicited Goods and Credit Cards Act.

Interpretation

2 In this Act:

(a) “unsolicited credit card” means a card, document or similar instrument, the receipt of which has not been requested in writing by the person to whom the card, document or instrument was sent, by which goods or services may be purchased on deferred payment, or by means of which cash may be received;

(b) “unsolicited goods” means personal property, the receipt of which has not been requested by the recipient, but does not include personal property delivered to a person that the person knew or ought to have known was intended for delivery to another person.

R.S.S. 1978, c.U-8, s.2.

Legal obligation of recipients

3 Where unsolicited credit cards or unsolicited goods are received, the recipient has no legal obligation to the sender in respect thereto, and, in the case of unsolicited credit cards, in respect to any transaction made thereby, unless and until the recipient expressly acknowledges to the sender in writing his intention to accept the unsolicited credit card or the unsolicited goods.

R.S.S. 1978, c.U-8, s.3.

No action for loss, etc., in absence of acknowledgement

4 In the absence of an acknowledgement mentioned in section 3, no action lies in the event of loss, misuse, damage, misappropriation or otherwise of the unsolicited credit card or unsolicited goods or for the value of goods, services or cash obtained by use of the unsolicited credit card.

R.S.S. 1978, c.U-8, s.4.

Renewal cards

5 A credit card that renews or replaces another credit card previously used by the recipient is not an unsolicited credit card.

R.S.S. 1978, c.U-8, s.5.

Non-application of Act

6 This Act does not apply to unsolicited credit cards or unsolicited goods in the hands of the recipients prior to the coming into force of this Act.

R.S.S. 1978, c.U-8, s.6.
