Short title

1 This Act may be cited as The Warehousemen's Lien Act.

Interpretation

2 In this Act:

(a) “goods” includes personal property of every description that may be deposited with a warehouseman as bailee;

(a.1) “security interest” means an interest in goods that secures payment or performance of an obligation;

(b) “warehouseman” means a person lawfully engaged in the business of storing goods as a bailee for hire.

R.S.S. 1978, c.W-3, s.2; 1979-80, c.100, s.3.

Warehouseman's lien

3(1) Subject to section 4, every warehouseman has a lien on goods deposited with him for storage, whether deposited by the owner of the goods or by his authority, or by a person entrusted with the possession of the goods by the owner or by his authority.

Charges covered by lien

(2) The lien is for the amount of the warehouseman's charges, that is to say:

(a) all lawful charges for storage and preservation of the goods;

(b) all lawful claims for money advanced, interest, insurance, transportation, labour, weighing, coopering, and other expenses in relation to the goods; and

(c) all reasonable charges for:

(i) any notice required to be given under this Act;

(ii) notice and advertisement of sale; and

(iii) sale of the goods where default is made in satisfying the warehouseman's lien.

R.S.S. 1978, c.W-3, s.3.

Requirement as to notice of lien in certain cases

4(1) Where the goods on which a lien exists were deposited not by the owner or by his authority but by a person entrusted by the owner or by his authority with the possession of the goods, the warehouseman shall, within two months after the date of the deposit, give notice of the lien to:

(a) the owner of the goods; and

c. W-3

WAREHOUSEMEN'S LIEN

(b) any person who has a security interest in the goods, where a financing statement is registered at the date of the deposit with respect to the security interest or which security interest is perfected on that date according to The Personal Property Security Act without registration.

Contents of notice

(2) The notice shall be in writing and contain:

- (a) a brief description of the goods;
- (b) a statement showing the location of the warehouse where the goods are stored, the date of their deposit with the warehouseman, and the name of the person by whom they were deposited; and
- (c) a statement that a lien is claimed by the warehouseman in respect of the goods under this Act.

Loss of lien from failure to give notice

(3) Where the warehouseman fails to give the notice required by this section, his lien, as against the person to whom he has failed to give notice, is void as from the expiration of the period of two months from the date of the deposit of the goods.

R.S.S. 1978, c.W-3, s.4; 1979-80, c.100, s.4.

Enforcement of lien by sale of goods

5(1) In addition to all other remedies provided by law for the enforcement of liens or for the recovery of warehouseman's charges, a warehouseman may sell, by public auction and in the manner provided in this section, any goods upon which he has a lien for charges that have become due.

Notice of sale

(2) The warehouseman shall give written notice of his intention to sell:

- (a) to the person liable as debtor for the charges for which the lien exists;
- (b) to the owner of the goods and to any person who has a security interest in the goods, where a financing statement is registered at the date of the deposit with respect to the security interest or which security interest is perfected on that date according to The Personal Property Security Act without registration; and

Substantial compliance with Act

6 Where a notice of lien under section 4, or a notice of intention to sell under section 5 has been given, but those sections have not been strictly complied with, if the court or a judge before whom any question respecting the notice is tried or inquired into considers:

- (a) that those sections have been substantially complied with; or
- (b) that it would be inequitable that the lien or sale shall be void by reason of such non-compliance;

no objection to the sufficiency of the notice shall in any such case be allowed to prevail so as to release or discharge the goods from the lien or vitiate the sale.

R.S.S. 1978, c.W-3, s.6.

Disposition of proceeds of sale

7(1) From the proceeds of the sale the warehouseman shall satisfy his lien, and shall pay over the surplus, if any, to the person entitled thereto; and the warehouseman shall when paying over the surplus deliver to the person to whom he pays it a statement of account showing how the amount has been computed.

c. W-3WAREHOUSEMEN'S LIEN*Order for payment into court

- (b) there are different claimants or the rights thereto are uncertain;

the warehouseman shall pay the surplus into Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench for Saskatchewan upon the order of a judge.

Procedure respecting order and contents of order

(3) The order may be made ex parte upon such terms and conditions as to costs and otherwise as the judge may direct, and may provide to what fund or name the amount shall be credited.

Statement of account

(4) the warehouseman at the time of paying the amount into court shall file in court a copy of the statement of account showing how the amount has been computed.

R.S.S. 1978, c.W-3, s.7; 1979-80, c.92, s.108.

Delivery of goods

(2) The warehouseman shall deliver the goods to the person making the payment if he is the person entitled to the possession of the goods on payment of the warehouseman's charges thereon; otherwise the warehouseman shall retain possession of the goods according to the terms of the contract of deposit.

R.S.S. 1978, c.W-3, s.8.

Manner of giving notices required by Act

9 Where by this Act a notice in writing is required to be given, the notice shall be given by delivering it to the person to whom it is to be given, or by mailing it in the post office, postage paid and registered, addressed to him at his last known address.

R.S.S. 1978, c.W-3, s.9.

Construction of Act

10 This Act shall be so interpreted and construed as to effect its general purpose of making uniform the law of the provinces that enact it.
